

12 Reasons to Attend Holy Trinity's
Old-Fashioned Holiday Bazaar
266 Bainbridge St.
1st Saturday in November
9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Could you use $1000 in gift cards along with other nice prizes? Take a chance and buy raffle tickets.

Need gifts for family, friends or yourself? We can meet all your needs with our great selection of craft items.

Are you hungry for delicious comfort food? Join us for great homestyle cooking featuring cabbage rolls, beef stew, vegetarian vegetable soup and much more.

Have kids who need to shop for family and friends for Christmas? Just visit the Tyke Shoppe to get the job done at a reasonable price.

Do you have a sweet tooth? The Bake Shoppe offers a variety of baked goods. Every precaution has been taken to keep your food safe according to health guidelines.

Do you like to bid on Silent Auction items? Check out the great variety of high-quality auction items available.

Do you like to read, listen to music or watch movies? The Book Nook has an assortment of very reasonably priced books, CD's and DVD's.

Need reasonably priced holiday decorations? Shop our both new and gently used items at our Holidaze booth.

Interested in getting a good deal on all kinds of used items? The Bazaar's Flea Market is the place to be.

How about Santa? Do you or your kids want to tell Santa what you want for Christmas?

Good old St. Nick will make an appearance from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm! Do you like to play games?

U-Pick - It is a fun game of chance for kids and adults alike.

Last but not least would you like to meet up with old friends or meet new ones? Get connected with them. Shop together; share a snack or just a chat at the Old-Fashioned Holiday Bazaar!